

Team Introduction List Instructions

Congratulations to you and the team on your accomplishment!

To properly announce your game, we will need to have the front side of this page filled out with accurate information. Please complete the front of this sheet and return it to the Site Administration table.

Please print neatly (or have someone who can print neatly) fill out the reverse side of this form. Phonetically spell ANY names that might be mispronounced. Provide the name as it should be announced

IE: If the player's name is Matthew Davis-Smoelinski but it should be announced as Matt Davis; write Matt Davis. If the player's name is Armando Jamillo, write Armando (Ar-Mon-Doh) Jamillo (Hum-E-O) or Erik Castal (Ku-stall).

The game will start following the ceremonies as outlined below:

1. Welcome Announcement
2. Host league and league officials
3. Presidents for the leagues playing
4. Manager and Coaches for the Visiting Team (join District Staff and League Presidents to the 3rd base side)
5. Manager and Coaches for the Home Team (join District Staff and League Presidents to the 1st base side)
6. Starting with the Visiting team, and then alternating to the Home team, each player will be announced and should shake hands with the District Officials and the opposing team, returning to the side their managers and coaches are lined up on. (Please try to line-up your players in the order listed on the reverse side).
7. Umpire announcement
8. National Anthem or Pledge of Allegiance
9. Little League Pledge – led by the players
10. Players, Managers, Coaches and Umpires will confer around the pitching mound while the remaining introductions are being done.
